Comments

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Richard F. Keller - May you find comfort in your loving memories and in recalling the many talents of Mr. Keller. God did not purpose that mankind suffer and die and has promised that a time will come when no one will say “I am sick” (Isaiah 33:24) Our loving Creator has promised to end pain and death. (Revelation 21:4) The Paradise that was originally purposed for the earth in the Garden of Eden will be fulfilled. (Psalm 37:29) including God’s “will being done as in Heaven also upon Earth” (Matt 6:9, 10. Please be comforted by Bible promises of a hopeful future (John 17:3).

“ Kristen,
We would like you to know that the display of photos of your father's life and achievements was endearing and a tribute and testimonial of the enduring love you had for him.
Thank you for sharing those memories with us.
